

ONLINE MARIANIST COURSES OFFERED FOR SUMMER, FALL

The North American Center for Marianist Studies – in partnership with the Institute for Pastoral Initiatives – offers the following online courses for your summer/fall enrichment.

For more information on course descriptions and registration, visit <http://vlc.udayton.edu>

For further information regarding Virtual Learning Community (VLC) Courses (i.e., how to sign up as a reserved group), contact Patti Gehred, VLC coordinator, at Patti.Gehred@notes.udayton.edu or 937.429.2521.

July 8 - August 11 (registration June 5 - July 4)

Charism, Spirituality, and Mission

Develop a deeper and broader understanding of how to live out the Marianist charism, spirituality, and mission in the wider Church and global community.

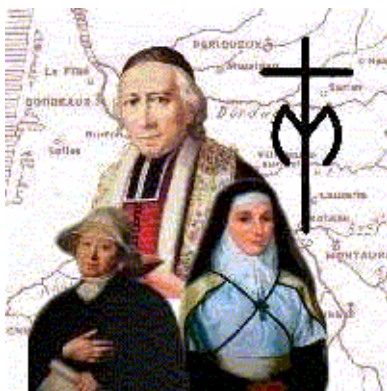

Marianist Studies: Social Justice

Envision social change from a Marianist perspective through integrating Father Chaminade's insights about responding to the world's need with the realities of modern life.

Leadership in the Marianist Tradition

Expand your leadership skills in connection with the Marianist tradition. Discover a style of leadership that is purposeful, developmental, adaptive, collaborative, and transformative.

August 26 - September 29 (registration July 10 - August 22)

Marianist Founders: Their Lives and Times

Walk with the Marianist Founders as they respond to the needs of their day. Become more familiar with their personal stories, and reflect on the legacy they left for us to draw on in our times.

Leadership in the Marianist Tradition

Expand your leadership skills in connection with the Marianist tradition. Discover a style of leadership that is purposeful, developmental, adaptive, collaborative, and transformative.

October 14 - November 17 (registration August 28 - October 10)

Marianist Studies: Community

Enhance your ability to form community in the Marianist spirit as you learn about the roots, expression, and unique characteristics of Marianist communities.

Prayer and the Marianist Spiritual Journey

Explore various “methods” or practices of prayer, including both individual and group prayer. Notice how the Spirit of God is always at work, everywhere—including in our own hearts.

Charism, Spirituality, and Mission

Develop a deeper and broader understanding of how to live out the Marianist charism, spirituality, and mission in the wider Church and global community.