

Marianist Online Courses

Autumn—A Time for Casting Seeds

Signs of Blessings

Why not take some time this autumn to collect seeds of knowledge about the blessings of Marianist life in one of our Marianist Virtual Learning Community Courses? (These courses are offered by NACMS in collaboration with the UD-VLCFF program).

The following courses will be offered from October 18-November 21, 2009.

Go to vlc.udayton.edu to register from September 1-October 14, 2009.

Marianist Studies: Founders

Explore the spirit-filled lives of the Marianist founders and discover ways their stories inspire our lives today.

Marianist Studies: Prayer

Enhance your personal prayer life as we reflect on the Marianist Spiritual Journey together.

Marianist Studies: Justice

Have you been feeling nudged by the Spirit to become more active in Social Justice? Learn how the Marianist Founders responded to the Spirit and how we can continue their legacy today.

Marianist Studies: Leadership

Being a positive, collaborative, and purposeful leader is more important than ever in these tough economic times. Join us as we find ways to develop the gifts of Marianist Leadership.

For more information contact Patti.Gehred@notes.udayton.edu or call 937.429.2521.