

APRIL 2008 FEAST DAYS

Monday, April 7 — St. John Baptist de La Salle

John Baptist de La Salle was born in 1651. As a young priest, he and Adrian Nyel, a lay person, became interested in education and opened two schools for boys. After some setbacks, he resigned his church position, gave away his inheritance, and organized the teachers around him into the beginnings of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. He also established a teacher training school and wrote on education.

Tuesday, April 8 — 247th Birthday of Blessed William Joseph Chaminade

Blessed William Joseph Chaminade was born in Périgueux, France, on April 8, 1761. He was the fourteenth of fifteen children of Blaise Chaminade and Catherine Béthon.

Tuesday, April 15 — Blessed Damien of Molokai

Damien de Veuster, a young Belgian priest, had served nine years as a missionary in the Hawaiian Islands when he felt called to request a perilous assignment. He asked his superiors to serve on the island of Molokai, the notorious leper colony. From the beginning of his work, he sought to instill a sense of dignity and self-worth in his parishioners. He himself died of leprosy on April 15, 1889, at the age of 49. He was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1995.

Wednesday, April 23 — St. George

Legend portrays George as a knight and a dragon slayer. He is the patron of England and Constantinople and is highly venerated in the Greek church. Tradition holds that George was decapitated in Palestine sometime before the reign of Constantine (337).

Friday, April 25 — St. Mark

Mark is a cousin of Barnabas and is associated with Paul and Peter. The gospel ascribed to him is the oldest (written probably prior to the fall of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.) and the shortest. Tradition holds Mark as the first bishop of Alexandria. He is portrayed as a winged lion in art.

Monday, April 28 — St. Peter Chanel

St. Peter was a French Marist missionary on the Pacific Islands of Wallis and Futuna. Born in 1803 in Clet, France, he joined the newly formed Society of Mary (Marists) in 1831. He was martyred in 1841 on the island of Futuna.

Monday, April 28 — St. Louis Mary de Montfort

St. Louis was the founder of the Congregation of the Daughters of Wisdom and the Missionaries of the Company of Mary. His preaching led to a spiritual renewal in his native Brittany, where he established numerous confraternities for the recitation of the rosary. He died in 1716.

Tuesday, April 29 — St. Catherine of Siena

Born in 1347, this extraordinary woman was a Dominican tertiary, a mystic and an author. She was a peacemaker within the church and a renewer of religious life. She was declared a Doctor of the Church and is a patroness of Italy as well as a co-patroness of Europe. She died in 1380.
