Chaminade-Madonna Students Share With Local Children

Hollywood, FL – Chaminade-Madonna students teamed up with the National Football League, Miami Dolphins, South Florida Super Bowl Host Committee, and NFL Youth Education Town of Miami to make a difference in the lives of local children. As part of Super Kids-Super Sharing, a Super Bowl XLIV community initiative, Chaminade-Madonna collected new and lightly used books, sports equipment and board games for children in need.

“Chaminade-Madonna donated almost 600 books, games, and athletic equipment items to the Super Kids-Super Sharing project,” said Assistant Principal for Student Affairs Ms. Colette Varese. “Our students were truly committed to the cause.”

A group of Chaminade-Madonna student-leaders attended the donation drop-off event held at the NFL Youth Education Town at Gwen Cherry Park in Miami on Thursday, January 28.

“We felt inspired to be a part of this national project, and to share our blessings with local children our age,” said Chaminade-Madonna senior, Tyler O’Brien. “Hearing the words of appreciation from Greg Camarillo [Miami Dolphins wide receiver] and Miami-Dade County Commissioner Dorrin Rolle was a humbling experience.”
