

PRESIDENT

Chaminade University OF HONOLULU

The Board of Regents and the University community invite applications and nominations for the position of President. Chaminade University is an independent, coeducational, four-year institution in the Catholic and Marianist tradition committed to providing to students of all backgrounds an affordable education. Chaminade University was founded in 1955 by the Society of Mary. One of the most ethnically and culturally diverse campuses in the West, Chaminade offers 23 major undergraduate programs and six graduate programs to its approximately 2,900 students. The University is located on a hillside in Honolulu approximately two miles from the ocean with a spectacular view of the Pacific ocean extending from Diamond Head to downtown Honolulu. This commanding site is only minutes away from the central city and its cultural and recreational activities

With a central campus in Honolulu and 11 campus extensions sites located primarily on military bases throughout Oahu, Chaminade strives to offer its students comprehensive career preparation programs that are strongly rooted in the liberal arts. A student teacher ratio of 18 to 1 ensures Chaminade students receive personal attention and ample opportunities to succeed in leadership positions on and off campus.

Chaminade's Marianist heritage enhances the University's ability to prepare students for successful careers and productive lives. Through an emphasis on learning by cooperation, self-discovery, caring and mutual respect, Chaminade University encourages students to become leaders, to serve their communities and to advance issues of social justice and ethics. The candidate must be prepared to act as a culturally sensitive and appreciative educational leader in Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander serving University that embraces students, faculty, and staff from diverse ethnic and religious traditions.

The next president, who is a Catholic with an advanced degree, will have the opportunity to build upon the many successes of a long-serving president by expanding academic programs including an integrated health and science program at the undergraduate and graduate level; promoting faculty scholarship and academic excellence, collaboration and a shared vision of the institution; actively fundraising and effectively promoting the institution; building external relationships; increasing enrollment; and implementing a strategic plan tied to multiple-year budgets.

Review of applications will begin January 15, 2009. Please view the Executive Search Profile at: www.rhperry.net/clients/profiles/Chaminade_President_Profile.pdf. Additional information on the University and the search is located at www.chaminade.edu.
