Chaminade-Madonna Students March for Life

Hollywood, FL – Nine Chaminade-Madonna students joined over 150 Archdiocese of Miami high school students on a three day pilgrimage coordinated by the Respect Life Ministry office to the national March for Life in Washington, D.C. on January 22. The young men and women marched on our nation's capital in the hopes that their presence would send a loud and clear message about the sanctity of human life.

"As we approached the top of Capitol Hill and saw 300,000 marchers among us, I realized that those were only the people who traveled to Washington, D.C. Many more people at home battle in favor of the same cause we fought for that day. The experience was breathtaking, and is something I will never forget," recalled Chaminade-Madonna senior, Jessica Ryckman.

During their three day pilgrimage, the Chaminade-Madonna students also visited the U.S. Holocaust Museum, and met with His Eminence Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston.

About Chaminade-Madonna College Preparatory

Chaminade-Madonna, a Catholic and Marianist high school, educates the heart and soul as well as the mind and body. It is a family-like community in which individuals of all backgrounds shape and share their faith, achieve excellence, and become caring participants and leaders in the service of community, church and those in need.

Chaminade-Madonna is one of sixteen schools in the United States sponsored by the Marianist Province of the United States. The high school is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and has received recognition as a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence, the highest award given by the U.S. Department of Education. The 2009-2010 school year marks Chaminade-Madonna's 50th Anniversary Jubilee. For more information about Chaminade-Madonna College Preparatory, please visit www.CMLions.org.
