

The Springfield/Clark County Catholic Social Action Collaborative and the Wittenberg Urban Studies Program present

Bro. Raymond L. Fitz, S.M.

In a dialogue on

Social Justice in the Springfield Region: Challenges for Clark County Faith Communities

Bro. Raymond Fitz, S.M. is the Fr. Ferree Professor of Social Justice at the University of Dayton and the Executive Director of the Association of Marianist Universities. He is a senior faculty member in the Center for Leadership in Community and as the Ferree Professor of Social Justice he works with faculty at the University of Dayton to integrate the Catholic social tradition across the curriculum. Bro. Ray was President of the University of Dayton from 1979 to 2002.

Sunday, Sept. 21, 2008

6:30 pm

105 Shouvlin

Wittenberg University

Bro. Ray will show how faith-based organizations can partner with public institutions to lead a two-pronged attack against the concentration of poverty and the loss of community in urban areas. He will link both of these phenomena to urban sprawl, and offer “inside” and “outside” policy suggestions to restore our urban areas.

His address will be followed by comments from three local panelists.