

ST. LOUIS, MO.

Hinde takes position with Marianists

Ruth Hinde, a Dayton native and University of Dayton graduate, has accepted the position of assistant coordinator of the Marianist Volunteer Program (MVP).

Her duties as assistant coordinator for MVP include recruiting volunteers, networking within the Marianist organization and fostering relationships with other volunteer organizations.

Hinde graduated from the University of Dayton with a bachelor's in math and German and a minor in physics. She recently completed a master's in education through the University of Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) program.

COURTESY PHOTO

Ruth Hinde

While in the ACE program, she volunteered for two years as a middle school math teacher at an under-resourced Catholic school in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Also, Travis Rindler, a Chaminade-Julienne and UD graduate, has joined the MVP in San Antonio, Texas. During his one-year commitment to the program, he will serve Baptist Child and Family Services (BCFS), a San Antonio-based human services organization with programs in Texas, Eastern Europe, Latin America, and Southeast Asia.

The MVP offers volunteers the opportunity to serve those in need, live in community and reflect on the volunteer experience. Individuals can volunteer for a variety of agencies in Cincinnati, New Orleans, Rockaway Park, N.Y., St. Louis, and San Antonio. The MVP has placements in a variety of focus areas, including education, social services, and community organizing, to name a few.