

UD GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS: JOB DESCRIPTION

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS at the University of Dayton are available each year. This two-year program allows graduate students to gain campus ministry experience while pursuing a Master of Theology or Pastoral Ministry.

GA's engage in 20 hours/week serving undergraduate students in the areas of Residence Life Ministry, Liturgy, and the Program for Christian Leadership.

Responsibilities include building community through spiritual and social programs, directing retreats, planning worship services, training peer and liturgical ministers, and providing pastoral support.

Tuition, stipend, and housing are provided.
