

People are Fragile

When I was a small child, my aunt—a Sister of Notre Dame—gave my family a nicely painted decorative stone with the following inscription:

"People are fragile, handle with prayer."

While simple in tone, the message is profound. We are all fragile—even the historical Jesus, as we recounted last week in the Triduum—and we are called to be missionaries that support our fellow sisters and brothers in times of need.

MLNNA E-News is beginning a new segment, Prayer Requests, in its monthly newsletter.

If interested, please provide us with the name and a brief description of the person for whom members of the Marianist Family should lift up in prayer.

MLNNA E-News will be distributed early next week, so please have requests to Dan Jordan by Saturday, April 22. Please provide your first and last name in your prayer request email. Send the information to mlnnacom@yahoo.com.

Thank you for your consideration.

Blessings in our Risen Lord,

Dan Jordan
