

Financial Assistance World Youth Day August 2005

Financial aid is available to participant-applicants for World Youth Day. Individuals are able to request financial aid for up to 1/3 of the tour package expense. Financial aid is awarded based upon the demonstrated need by the potential participants for financial assistance. Given the amount of money available from the Marianist Province of the United States, every effort will be made to meet the needs of each request. Financial Assistance will be given on a first come, first serve basis.
