

BROTHER MARK MOTZ

Brother Mark Motz, 30, is from West Chester, Ohio. He is a graduate of Archbishop Moeller High School in Cincinnati, Ohio. He earned his bachelor's degree from University of Dayton in 2010 with a focus in religious studies and minors in catechesis and Marianist Social Transformation. He entered the novitiate community in 2011. During his second year of novitiate, Bro. Mark ministered at St. Mary's High School in St. Louis. After Bro. Mark professed first vows on May 18, 2013, he ministered in campus ministry at Chaminade University of Honolulu, Hawaii. He also served as the regional vocation director in Hawaii. In 2017, he earned a master's degree with a concentration in pastoral ministry from University of Dayton, Ohio, where he also worked in campus ministry. Presently, Bro. Mark is the national vocation director. In looking to the future, Bro. Mark says, "I am excited to work with young people who are interested in discerning the Marianist life – a life that has given me so much."
