Dear Friends,

Please join the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO) in extending a fond farewell and prayerful best wishes to Marianist Brother Bob Metzger (right), who will be returning to ministry within his community. Brother Bob has a long history with the NRRO, serving as associate director for planning and education for the last 10 years and, prior to that, as a volunteer consultant for 21 years. During his time as associate director, Brother Bob helped the NRRO to greatly expand our educational offerings, initiating and/or coordinating such resources as our webinar series, numerous workshops, and the quarterly publication, Engaging Aging. Through various NRRO programs, including Planning and Implementation Assistance and Eldercare Consultations, he has also provided hands-on assistance that supported numerous religious institutes on the path to a more secure retirement.

For now, I will be the educational point person as well as the NRRO contact for religious institutes that have been working with Brother Bob. Please contact me with any questions (sstill@uscgb.org). Be assured that we have initiated a search to fill this vital role within our NRRO team.

We extend our deepest thanks to Brother Bob for his unwavering commitment to the NRRO mission and for his tireless efforts on behalf of senior religious and their communities. May God bless him abundantly as he enters his next phase of ministry.

With gratitude,
Sister Stephanie Still, PBVM
