Summer Greetings!

Dear Administrators,

This summer, the Office of Sponsorship hosted two formation programs: Teaching as Ministry (Dayton, Ohio) and facilitator training for Orientation to the Marianist Charism (Los Angeles, California). Bill Raddell of Villa Angela-St. Joseph High School in Cleveland facilitated the TAM workshop. Bro. Adam Becerra, fsp and Carolina Gunter of Chaminade College Preparatory in Chatsworth, California, led the facilitator training for Orientation to the Marianist Charism.

We are grateful for the many collaborators who joyfully give their time and talent to help animate and share the gift of Marianist ministry. To all of our collaborators, we say "Thank You!"

Blessings,

MAC to Feature Ann Garrido

Tension is a part of every normal learning community. How we choose to manage the tension, however, will either fragment our communities or mature them, enabling schools and retreat centers to more fully live their Marianist mission. — Ann Garrido

Nationally renowned Catholic author and presenter, Ann Garrido, will be the keynote speaker at this October's Marianist Administrators Conference. Speaking out of her own experience as an administrator and conflict mediator, Garrido will share a framework for understanding the conflicts present in ministry today and concrete practices to constructively engage the tough conversations that need to be had.

MAC participants will receive a copy of Ann's newest book, Redeeming Conflict: 12 Habits for Christian Leaders.

News From Marianist Social Justice

On behalf of the office for Justice, Peace & Integrity of Creation (JPIC), we invite you to delve deeper into the spirituality of JPIC, both individually and institutionally. Per Fr. Tim Kenney's helpful recommendation, our office is developing JPIC Monthly Resources for the Brothers and their communities. We are also extending these JPIC Resources to our wider Marianist family, and we hope they provide an opportunity for ongoing conversation, education, formation and prayer for you and your ministries. Feel free to utilize this Resource as is, or adapt it as necessary to best meet the needs of your group gathered.

Brian Reavey, Director - Office for Justice, Peace &
Integrity of Creation

Each month has a different theme, and January's JPIC Resource was focused on Racial Justice. In addition to suggested reading materials and discussion questions focused on the U.S. Bishops Conference Pastoral Letter, Open Wide Our Hearts: the Enduring Call to Love (a pastoral letter against racism), there is also a prayer service focused on racial healing. If you or your institution know of any helpful activities, curriculum or resources related to racial justice, please share them with me. We're currently putting together a Resource List to be shared with the wider Marianist family to help further advance racial justice in our communities and beyond.
