Are you someone who believes that you can make a difference?

Are you committed to action and creating social change?

Then join us for the Changemakers Conference

Sponsored by

Marianist Social Justice Collaborative and the Marianist Province
Justice, Peace & Integrity of Creation Office

Rooted in the Marianist tradition of service, community and social justice, this conference brings together a critical core of inter-faith, inter-generational people determined to make the needs of our local and global communities more visible. Our day will be spent reflecting on our responses to those needs and re-imagining how we might take action to make even more effective change today, tomorrow, this year and beyond.

Registration Includes: continental breakfast, catered lunch, and snacks throughout the day. Optional Catholic Mass will be celebrated after the end of the conference.

Space Limited – Register Now!
