

CHAMINADE

COLLEGE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Grades 6-12 in the Marianist Tradition

Chaminade College Preparatory School, an independent, Catholic school, is dedicated to developing the inherent spiritual, intellectual, emotional, and physical potential of young men in middle and high school. We hire dedicated teachers who are passionate about student learning and working in a collaborative environment.

We currently are accepting applications for a Retreat Coordinator. This is a full-time staff position who reports to the Director of Campus Ministry.

The Retreat Coordinator will:

- Coordinate all aspects of the retreat program;
- Lead multiple overnight retreats throughout the school year;
- Facilitate leadership development and faith-sharing among students;
- Work in collaboration with all members of Campus Ministry staff to ensure a well-organized and fully functioning department;
- Assist House Deans and Mentors in the Pastoral Care of their House.

Ideal candidates will:

- Have experience designing and leading retreats for multiple age groups;
- Hold a deep personal faith rooted in Jesus and His Church and effectively communicate the Gospel message;
- Have a passion for fostering spiritual growth in Middle School and High School aged young men;
- Have a Bachelor's in Religious Studies, Theology or other related fields.
 - Other degrees will be considered with relevant experience in ministry

Please email resume and letter of interest to Karen Carroll, kcarroll@chaminade-stl.org. No phone calls, please.
