

BROTHER DUWAYNE BRISENDINE

Celebrating 70 years of Profession

In my 70 years of profession, I've served as a teacher, assistant principal, principal, and professor at various high schools and universities in Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, Illinois, Texas, and Japan. I've also held various roles, including assistant director, business manager, secretary, and professor in India, Los Angeles, Rome, and Honolulu.

I was born December 13th, 1935, in Addison, MI, to Edgar and Ardith (Cheesbro) Brisendine and had two brothers and two sisters. In 1951, I entered the postulate at Maryhurst Normal in Kirkwood, MO and then in 1952, I joined the novitiate at Marynook in Galesville, WI. I attended the Scholasticate at Maryhurst and St. Mary's University, taking Perpetual Vows in 1958 at Our Lady of the Pillar in St. Louis, MO. I hold a Master of Mathematics from Notre Dame and currently reside at the Marianist Residence in San Antonio.
