

Bro. Tom Wendorf, S.M.

Originally from Brunswick, Ohio, and a graduate of University of Dayton (1986), Tom Wendorf made first vows as a Marianist in 1988 and final vows in 1991.

He taught high school English at Hackett Catholic Central High School for three years before earning his doctorate in English and American Literature at Washington University in St. Louis, MO, in 1999.

He taught full-time in the English Department at U.D. from 1999-2010. He served for the next seven years as Province Vocation Director. Bro. Tom returned to Dayton in 2016 to live in the Marianist Novitiate community for his last year as Vocation Director and in Fall 2017 returned to the U.D. English Department where he currently teaches full-time.
